"advokatur kümin" in Zurich specializes since 2006 in Swiss and international law. Our law firm is characterized by many years of continuous experience in business law. We deal with complex legal matters of our demanding Swiss and international clients in an innovative, time and cost efficient manner.

Clients profit from our expertise in selected business sectors including energy, banking and finance, information technology, insurance and liability, aviation, international trade and distribution systems. We act as an external legal department for various medium-sized enterprises that entrust us with their legal projects and other issues.

As an independent law firm, we regularly work with a network of specialised attorneys as well as other experts in Switzerland and abroad, with whom we achieve optimal results for your business goals. All internal and external services are coordinated and managed in a responsive and flexible manner.

In addition to our knowledge of different legal systems, we appreciate the variety of the cultures in which we practise. Our working languages are English, German, French and Portuguese.
